

Psalm 31

In te, Domine, speravi

tone III5

IN THEE, O Lord, have I put my trust: let me nev-er be put to confusion, deliver me in thy righteousness. 2. Bow down thine ear to me: make haste to deliver me. 3. And be thou my strong rock, and house of defence: that thou mayest save me. 4. For thou art my strong rock, and my castle: be thou also my guide, and lead me for thy Name's sake. 5. Draw me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength. 6. Into thy hands I commend my spirit: for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth. 7. I have hated them that hold of superstitious vanities: and my trust hath been in the Lord. 8. I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble, and hast known my soul in adversities. 9. Thou hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: but hast set my feet in a large room. 10. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble: and mine eye is consumed for very heaviness; yea, my soul and my body. 11. For my life is waxen old with heaviness: and my years with mourning. 12. My strength faileth me, because of mine in-iqulty: and my bones are consumed. 13. I became a reproof among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours: and they of mine acquaintance were afraid of me; and they that did see me without convey-ed themselves from me. 14. I am clean for-gotten, as a dead man out of mind: I am become like a broken vessel. 15. For I have heard the blasphemy of the multitude: and fear is on ever-y side, while they conspire together against me, *and take their counsel to take a-way my life. 16. But my hope hath been in thee, O Lord: I have said, Thou art my God. 17. My time is in thy hand; deliver me from the hand of mine enemies: and from them that persecute me. 18. Shew thy servant the light of thy countenance: and save me for thy mercy's sake. 19. Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee: let the un-godly be put to confusion, and be put to silence in the grave. 20. Let the lying lips be put to silence: which cruelly, disdainfully, and despitefully, speak against the righteous. 21. O how plentiful is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee: and that thou hast prepared for them that put their trust in thee, even before the sons of men! 22. Thou shalt hide them privily by thine own presence from the provoking of all men: thou shalt keep them secretly in thy tabernacle from the strife of tongues. 23. Thanks be to the Lord: for he hath shewed me marvellous great kindness in a strong city. 24. And when I made haste, I said: I am cast out of the sight of thine eyes. 25. Nevertheless, thou heardest the voice of my prayer: when I cried unto thee.

26. O love the Lord, all ye his saints: for the Lord preserveth them that are faithful, and plenteously rewardeth the proud do-er. 27. Be strong, and he shall establish your heart: all ye that put your trust in the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen

The image shows two staves of musical notation. The first staff contains the melody for the first part of the Gloria, and the second staff contains the melody for the second part. The lyrics are placed below the staves, with the first line of lyrics corresponding to the first staff and the second line of lyrics corresponding to the second staff. The notation consists of a single line with square notes and stems, typical of a simple hymn tune.
