 Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.<sup>78</sup> So he fed them with a faithful and true heart: and ruled them prudently with all his power.    Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen

Psalm 78                      Attendite, popule                      tone I4

 HEAR my law, O my people:    in-cline your ears un - to the words of my mouth.    2. I will op-en my mouth in    a pa-rale:    I will declare hard sentences of old; 3. Which we have heard and known: and such as our fathers have told us;    4. That we should not hide them from the children of the gener - ations to come:    but to shew the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wonderful works that he hath done.    5. He made a covenant with Jacob, and gave Isra-el a law:    which he commanded    our fore-fathers to teach their children;    6. That their poster-ity might know it:    and the children which were yet unborn;    7. To the intent that when they came up:    they might shew their children the same;    8. That they might put their trust in God:    and not to forget the works of God, but to keep his commandments;    9. And not to be as their forefathers, a faithless and stubborn generation:    a gener - ation that set not their heart aright, and whose spir-it cleaveth not stedfast-ly un-to

God; 10. Like as the children of Ephraim: who being harnessed, and carrying bows, turned themselves back in the day of battle.<sup>11</sup> They kept not the covenant of God: and would not walk in his law; <sup>12</sup> But forgot what he had done: and the wonderful works that he had shewed for them.<sup>13</sup> Marvellous things did he in the sight of our forefathers, in the land of Egypt: ev-en in the field of Zo-an. <sup>14</sup> He di-vided the sea, and let them go through: he made the waters to stand on an heap. <sup>15</sup> In the day-time also he led them with a cloud: and all the night through with a light of fire. <sup>16</sup> He clave the hard rocks in the wilderness: and gave them drink thereof, as it had been out of the great depth. <sup>17</sup> He brought waters out of the stony rock: so that it gushed out like the rivers. <sup>18</sup> Yet for all this they sinned more against him: and provoked the most Highest in the wilderness.<sup>19</sup> They tempted God in their hearts: and required meat for their lust.<sup>20</sup> They spake against God also, saying: Shall God and took sore displeasure at Is-rael. <sup>61</sup> So that he forsook the tabernacle in Silo: even the tent that he had pitched among men. <sup>62</sup> He deliv-ered their power in-to captivi-ty: and their beauty into the enemy's hands.<sup>63</sup> He gave his people o-ver al-so un-to the sword: and was wroth with his inher-itance.

<sup>64</sup> The fire consumed their young men: and their maidens were not given to marriag.<sup>65</sup> Their priests were slain with the sword: and there were no widows to make lamentation. <sup>66</sup> So the Lord awaked as one out of sleep: and like a giant refreshed with wine.<sup>67</sup> He smote his enemies in the hinder parts: and put them to a perpetu-al shame.<sup>68</sup> He refused the tabernacle of Joseph: and chose not the tribe of Ephraim;<sup>69</sup> But chose the tribe of Judah: ev-en the hill of Sion which he loved. <sup>70</sup> And there he built his temple on high: and laid the foundation of it like the ground which he hath made continually. <sup>71</sup> He chose David also his servant: and took him away from the sheep- folds. <sup>72</sup> As he not their soul from death: but gave their life o-ver to the pes-tilence;

52. And smote all the first- born in Egypt: the most principal and mightiest in the dwellings of Ham. 53. But as for his own people, he led them forth like sheep: and carried them in the wilderness like a flock. 54. He brought them out safe-ly, that they should not fear: and overwhelmed their en-emies with the sea. 55. And brought them within the borders of his sanctu-ary: even to his mountain which he purchased with his right hand. 56. He cast out the heathen also before them: caused their land to be divided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents. 57. So they tempted and displeased the most high God: and kept not his tes-timonies; 58. But turned their backs, and fell away like their forefathers: starting aside like a broken bow. 59. For they grieved him with their hill- altars: and provoked him to displeasure with their ima-ges. 60. When God heard this, he was wroth:

prepare a table in the wilderness? 21. He smote the stony rock indeed, that the waters gushed out, and the streams flowed withal: but can he give bread also, or provide flesh for his people? 22. When the Lord heard this, he was wroth: so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up heavy displeasure against Israel; 23. Because they believed not in God: and put not their trust in his help. 24. So he commanded the clouds above: and opened the doors of heaven. 25. He rained down manna also upon them for to eat: and gave them food from heaven. 26. So man did eat angels' food: for he sent them meat enough. 27. He caused the east- wind to blow under heaven: and through his power he brought in the south- west- wind. 28. He rained flesh upon them as thick as dust: and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea. 29. He let it fall among their tents: even round about their habitation. 30. So they did eat and were well fil-led, *for he gave them their own desire: they were not disappointed of their lust. 31. But while the meat was yet in their mouths, the heavy wrath of God came upon them, and slew the wealthiest of them: yea, and smote down the chosen men that were in Is-rael. 32. But for all this they sinned yet more: and believed not his wondrous works. 33. Therefore their days did he consume in vanity: and their years in trouble. 34. When he slew them, they sought him: and turned them early, and inquired after God. 35. And they remembered that God was their strength: and that the high God was their redeemer.

36. Never-theless, they did but flat-ter him with their mouth: and dissembled with him in their tongue. 37. For their heart was not whole with him: neither continued they stedfast in his covenant. 38. But he was so merci-ful, that he forgave their misdeeds: and destroyed them not. 39. Yea, many a time turned he his wrath away: and would not suffer his whole displeasure to arise.

40. For he consid-ered that they were but flesh: and that they were even a wind that passeth away, and cometh not again. 41. Many a time did they provoke him in the wilderness: and grieved him in the desert. 42. They turned back, and tempted God: and moved the Holy One in Is-rael. 43. They thought not of his hand: and of the day when he deliv-ered them from the hand of the ene-my; 44. How he had wrought his mir-a-cles in Egypt: and his wonders in the field of Zoan. 45. He turned their waters in-to blood: so that they might not drink of the rivers. 46. He sent lice among them, and devoured them up: and frogs to destroy them. 47. He gave their fruit unto the caterpillar: and their labour unto the grass- hopper. 48. He destroyed their vines with hail- stones: and their mulberry- trees with the frost. 49. He smote their cattle al-so with hail- stones: and their flocks with hot thunderbolts. 50. He cast upon them the fu-riousness of his wrath, anger, displeasure and trouble: and sent evil angels among them. 51. He made a way to his indignation, and spared
