IT IS a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises un-to thy Name, O most Highest; 2. To tell of thy loving-kindness early in the morning: and of thy truth in the night-season; 3. Upon an instrument of ten strings, and upon the lute: upon a loud instrument, and upon the harp.

4. For thou, Lord, hast made me glad through thy works: and I will rejoice in giving praise for the operations of thy hands. 5. O Lord, how glorious are thy works: thy thoughts are very deep. 6. An unwise man doth not well consider this: and a fool doth not understand it. 7. When the ungodly are green as the grass, and when all the workers of wickedness do flourish: then shall they be destroyed for ever; *but thou, Lord, art the most Highest for ever-ermore.

8. For lo, thine ene-mies, O Lord, lo, thine ene-mies shall perish: and all the workers of wickedness shall be destroy-ed. 9. But mine horn shall be exalted like the horn of an unicorn: for I am anointed with fresh oil. 10. Mine eye also shall see his lust of mine enemies: and mine ear shall hear his desire of the wicked that arise up against me. 11. The righteous shall flourish like a palm-tree: and shall spread abroad like a cedar in Libanus. 12. Such as are planted in the house of the Lord: shall flourish in the courts of the house of our God. 13. They also shall bring forth more fruit in their age: and shall be fat and well-king. 14. That they may shew how true the Lord my strength is: and that there is no unrighteousness in him. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ev-er shall be: world without end. Amen
