

O GIVE thanks un-to the Lord, for he is gracious: and his mercy endureth for ev - er. 2. Who can express the no - ble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise? 3. Blessed are they that always keep judgement: and do righteousness. 4. Remember me, O Lord, according to the favour that thou bearst unto thy people: O vis-it me with thy sal - vation; 5. That I may see the felic-ity of thy chosen: and rejoice in the gladness of thy people, and give thanks with thine in - heritance. 6. We have sinned with our fathers:

we have done amiss, and dealt wickedly. 7. Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt, *neither kept they thy great goodness in remembrance: but were disobe-dient at the sea, ev-en at the Red sea. 8. Nevertheless, he helped them for his Name's sake: that he might make his power to be known. 9. He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the deep, as through a wilderness. 10. And he saved them from the ad-versary's hand: and delivered them from the hand of the en-emy. 11. As for those that troubled them, the waters o-verwhelmed them: there was not one of them left. 12. Then believed they his words: and sang praise un-to him. 13. But within a while they forgot his works: and would not abide his counsel.

14. But lust came upon them in the wil-derness: and they tempted God in the desert. 15. And he gave them their desire: and sent leanness withal in-to their soul. 16. They angered Moses al-so in the tents: and Aaron the saint of the Lord. 17. So the earth opened, and swallowed up Dathan: and covered the congregation of A - biram. 18. And the fire was kindled in their company: the flame burnt up the ungodly. 19. They made a calf in Horeb: and worshipped the molten image. 20. Thus they turned their glory: into the similitude of a calf that eateth hay. 21. And they forgot God their Saviour: who had done so great things in Egypt; 22. Wondrous works in the land of Ham: and fearful things by the Red sea. 23. So he said, he would have destroyed them, *had not

Moses his chosen stood before him in the gap: to turn a-way his wrathful indignation, lest he should destroy them.24. Yea, they thought scorn of that pleasant land: and gave no credence un-to his word;25. But murmured in their tents: and hearkened not un-to the voice of the lord. 26. Then lift he up his hand against them: to o-verthrow them in the wilderness; 27. To cast out their seed among the nations: and to scatter them in the lands. 28. They joined themselves un-to Baal-peor: and ate the offerings of the dead.

29. Thus they provoked him to anger with their own inventions: and the plague was great a-mong them. 30. Then stood up Phinees and prayed: and so the plague ceased. 31. And that was counted unto him for righteousness: among all pos-ter-ities for ev-ermore. 32. They angered him also at the waters of strife: so that he punished Moses for their sakes33. Because they provoked his spirit: so that he spake un-advisedly with his lips. 34. Neither destroyed they the heathen: as the Lord commanded them, 35. But were mingled among the heathen: and learned their works. 36. Insomuch that they worshipped their idols, which turned to their own decay: yea, they offered their sons and their daughters un-to devils; 37. And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters: whom they had offered un-to the idols of Canaan; and the land was defiled with blood. 38. Thus were they stained with their own works: and went a whoring with their own inventions. 39. Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled against his people: in - somuch that he abhorred his own inheritance. 40. And he gave them over in - to the hands of the heathen: and they that hated them were lords over them. 41. Their enemies oppressed them: and had them in sub-jection. 42. Many a time did he deliver them: but they rebelled against him with their own inventions, and were brought down in their wickedness. 43. Nevertheless, when he saw their adversity: he heard their complaint. 44. He thought upon his covenant, and pitied them according un-to the multitude of his mercies: yea, he made all those that led them away captive to pity them. 45. Deliver us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the heathen: that we may give thanks un-to thy holy Name, and make our boast of thy praise. 46. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting and world without end: and let all the people say, Amen. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen
