This is a list of modern editions of sheet music for unaccompanied solo recorder, and a few other related items. Few of them are modern works. I list all those where I have information beyond what can be found in a publisher's catalogue.

- [1] Thoinot Arbeau. Orchesography, Dover Publications, Inc., 180 Varick Street, New York, N.Y. 10014, 1967. ISBN 0-486-21745-0. Translated by Mary Stewart Evans: With a new Introduction and Notes by Julia Sutton: And a new Labanotation section by Mireille Backer and Julia Sutton.

Tabulation for the Fife or Arigot in the third mode – [the same] in triple time – Pavan in four parts – Basse dance called ‘I will give you joy’ – Retour of the bass dance – Tordion – Galliard called ‘Because of the traitor I die’ – Galliard called ‘Antoinette’ – Lavolta – Coranto – Alman – Gay branle – Burgundian branle – Haut Barrois – mixed branle called Cassandra – branle called Pingay – mixed branle Charlotte – mixed branle of war – mixed branle Aridan – mixed branle of Poitou – first Scottish branle – second Scottish branle – branle called Trihory – Maltese branle – Washerwoman’s branle – Branle called Pease – Hermit’s branle – Candlestick branle – Torch branle – The clog branle – The horses branle – The Montarde branle – The Hay branle – The Offical branle – a Gavotte – the Morris – the Canary – the Spanish Pavan – the Buffens

This is really a book about 16th century dancing. I have included it here merely for the tunes listed. I have omitted the repeated “Melody of the” from the titles.

- [2] Attilio Ariosti. Arien aus den Opern „Vespasian“ und „Coriolanus“, für Altblockflöte solo/ for treble recorder solo, edited by Ulrich Thieme. Zeitschrift für Spielmusik. Moeck Verlag + Instrumentenwerke (Z.f.S. 542/543), D-3100 Celle, 1984.

Vespasian: Ah traditore – Coriolanus: Io spero
 – Vespasian: Io sono oppresa tanto – Vespasian:
 Su le nemiche – Coriolanus: Rendi al padre
 – Vespasian: Aure voi che m’ascoltate – Vespasian:
 Non e Cupido – Coriolanus: Se tu mi perdi – Coriolanus:
 Si fa la colpa ogn’or – Vespasian: Combattuta navicella

- [3] Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach. Sonate c-moll, Wq 132, für Altblockflöte solo, edited by Manfred Harras. Bärenreiter-Verlag (BA 8079), Basel, 1986.

[no tempo] – allegro – allegro

- [4] J. S. Bach. Six Suites ... d’après les SUITES pour Violoncelle seul, BWV 1007–1009, pour flûte à bec alto, edited by Jean-Claude Veilhan, volume I. Suites I – II – III. Alphonse Leduc (AL 25 369), 175, rue Saint-Honoré, Paris, 1976.

With all movements

- [5] J. S. Bach. Six Suites ... d'après les SUITES pour Violoncelle seul, BWV 1010–1012, pour flûte à bec alto, edited by Jean-Claude Veilhan, volume II. Suites IV – V – VI. Alphonse Leduc (AL 25 421), 175, rue Saint-Honoré, Paris, nouvelle édition, 1976.

With all movements

- [6] J. S. Bach. 11 movements from the Sonatas and Partias [sic] for Violin Solo, BWV 1001–1006, arranged for Alto Recorder Solo, edited by Frans Brüggen. Zen-On Music, [Publisher's address provided in Japanese only], 1978. ISBN 4-11-509011-1.

BWV 1001: Adagio; BWV 1003 Allegro; BWV 1004 Allemande – Corrente – Sarabanda – Giga; BWV 1005 Allegro assai; BWV 1006 Preludio – Gavotte en Rondeau – Bourrée – Gigue. This is not a bound book, but a cover with loose sheets. [The details for this entry may be incomplete, because this was published in Japan and I am unable to read Japanese.]

Confusingly, one of the pieces is mislabelled in the title of the movement, with the wrong BWV-Nr. The movements here cannot be played together, because they are transposed differently: BWV 1004, originally in d minor, here has movements in d minor, d minor, c minor, g minor. The editor says in the preface: “I personally felt uneasy about arranging more – or less – of BWV 1001–1006 than has been printed here.”.

- [37] J. S. Bach. Sie werden aus Saba alle kommen, BWV 65, [für] 2 Blockflöten im Umfang f1 bis g3. In Strebel and Richter [34], page 28.

1. Chor – 6. Aria: Nimm mich dir zu eigen hin

- [38] J. S. Bach. Tritt auf die Glaubensbahn, BWV 152, [für] 1 Blockflöte im Umfang f1–g3. In Strebel and Richter [34], pages 56–59.

1. Concerto – 4. Aria: Stein, der über alle Schätze – 6. Duetto: Wie soll ich dich, Liebster der Seelen, umfassen

- [39] J. S. Bach. Uns ist ein Kind geboren, BWV 142, [für] 2 Blockflöten (I: a1–e3; II: g1–c3). In Strebel and Richter [34], pages 54–56.

1. Concerto – 7. Aria: Jesu, dir sei Preis – 8.
Choral: Alleluja, gelobet sei Gott

- [40] J. S. Bach. Three Inventions, for Solo Recorder in F, edited by P. J. Perry. Rosebay Publications (No. 4F), 23 Peckover Way, South Wootton, King's Lynn, Norfolk, PE30 3UE, 1987. Transcribed and arranged by P. J. Perry and edited by H. Mason. From the Two-part Keyboard Inventions.

Allegro – Andante – Vivace

I do not know precisely which works or works these come from.

- [41] J. S. Bach. Partita en ré mineur, BWV 1004, pour flûte à bec alto seule, edited by Jean-Claude Veilhan. La flûte ancienne. Alphonse Leduc, Editions Musicales (AL 27.490), 175, rue Saint-Honoré, 75040 Paris cedex 01, 1989.

Allemande – courante – sarabande – gigue –
chaconne

- [42] [J. S.] Bach. Bach Notebook, for solo [modern Boehm] flute, edited by Simon Hunt. Pan Educational Music (Pem. 67), 40 Portland Road, London, W11, 1990.

Two Minuets from the Suite No. 1 in G Major for unaccompanied 'Cello [BWV 1007] – Slow movement from the Violin Concerto in A minor [BWV 141] – Chorus from the Coffee Cantata [BWV 211] – Courante from the French

Suite No. 2 [BWV 813] – Sarabande from the French Suite No. 5 [BWV 816] – Bourrée from the French Suite No. 5 [BWV 816] – Aria from the Coffee Cantata [BWV 211] – From the [Orchestral] Suite No. 2 in B Minor [BWV 1067]: Minuet – Badinerie

About two-thirds of these can be played on the treble recorder, with a little octaving. The remainder can be played on the descant.

- [43] Jean-Sébastien Bach. Six Sonates et Partitas ... d'après les sonates et partitas pour violon seul, BWV 1001 – BWV 1003 – BWV 1005, pour flûte à bec alto, edited by Jean-Claude Veilhan, volume I – 3 sonates. Alphonse Leduc & Cie, Editions Musicales (AL 29 100), 175, rue Saint-Honoré, 75040 Paris Cedex 01, 1997.

This contains all the movements of these sonatas.

- [44] Jean-Sébastien Bach. Six Sonates et Partitas ... d'après les sonates et partitas pour violon seul, BWV 1002 – BWV 1004 – BWV 1006, pour flûte à bec alto, edited by Jean-Claude Veilhan, volume II – 3 partitas. Alphonse Leduc & Cie, Editions Musicales (AL 29 210), 175, rue Saint-Honoré, 75040 Paris Cedex 01, 1999.

This contains all the movements of these partitas

The version of BWV 1004 presented here is slightly different from that published singly by the same editor [41].

- [45] Joh. Seb. Bach. Die Blockflöte in den Kantaten Joh. Seb. Bachs, edited by Linde Höffer v. Winterfeld, volume 1 of Blockflötetudien: Eine Sammlung von originaler Blockflötenmusik aus alter Zeit. Musikverlag Hans Sikorski (Ed. Nr 502 a), Hamburg, 1959.

Jesus, wahres Brot des Lebens [BWV] 180 –
Meine Seele rühmt und preist [BWV] 189 –
Deine Güte, dein Erbarmen [BWV] 189 – Selig sind, die aus Erbarmen [BWV] 39 – Der Leib zwar in der Erden [BWV] 161 – Wie soll ich dich, Liebster [BWV] 152 – Lebenswonne, Licht
der Sinnen [BWV] 180 – Glorie, Lob, Ehr und
Herrlichkeit [BWV] 106 – Mein Seelenschatz ist
Gottes Wort [BWV] 18 – Bestelle dein Haus
[BWV] 106 – Preise, Jerusalem, den Herrn
[BWV] 119 – Herr Christ, der ein'ge Gottessohn [BWV] 96 – Sinfonia [BWV] 182 – Him-melskönig sei willkommen [BWV] 182 – So las-set uns gehen [BWV] 182 – Sinfonia [BWV] 152
– Stein, der über alle Schätze [BWV] 152 – Denn
der Herr hat mich voll Jammers gemacht [BWV]
46 – Ächzen und erbärmlich Weinen [BWV] 13
sic “Lebenswonne”; other editions [36] [46] I have suggest that it should be “Lebens Sonne”.

Both make superficial sense (though “Sonne” fits in better with “Licht”) and I have not checked against an authoritative source.

- [46] [Johann Sebastian] Bach. A Bach Book: Twenty Passages from Flute Parts in the Church Cantatas, for the treble recorder, edited by Imogen Holst. J. B. Cramer & Co. Ltd. (15235), 99 St. Martin’s Lane, London, WC2N 4AZ, 1977.

Come, thou lovely hour of death [BWV] 161 –
 Take me to Thee for Thine own [BWV] 65 – O
 Sun of life, and Light of all the world [BWV]
 180 – Blessed are the chosen of God [BWV] 34
 – Return unto thy rest, oh my soul, Easter Oratorio [BWV 249] – Dying, have we yet eternal life [BWV] 198 – If it be thy will [BWV] 161
 – Hold in remembrance Jesus Christ [BWV] 67
 – Let us also follow Thee, St John Passion –
 My soul is weary of this life [BWV] 170 – Lord,
 may I sing Thy praise within Thy house for ever [BWV] 107 – They need no candle there, neither light of the sun [BWV] 198 – Cast out this needless fear of death [BWV] 8 – Lord God, we sing
 The praises [BWV] 130 – Melt now, my heart,
 St John Passion – Be ready, my soul [BWV]
 115 – Why seek ye the living amount the dead?
 Easter Oratorio [BWV 249] – Be joyful [BWV]
 180 – Comfort sweet, my Jesu comes [BWV] 151

– Our days are hastening onward, as swift as a rushing stream [BWV] 26

Only the first three and Be joyful were, I believe, intended for recorder rather than baroque transverse flute.

- [47] Johann Sebastian Bach. Partita, BWV 1013, for treble recorder solo, edited by Paul Zweers. Schott & Co. Ltd (ED 12154), London, 1983.

Allemande – Corrente – Sarabande – Bourée
Anglaise

- [48] Johann Sebastian Bach. Sonate F-Dur, BWV 1033, edited by Annette Struck. Das Blockflöten-Repertoire. Moeck Verlag (Edition Moeck Nr. 2542), D-3100 Celle, 1985.

Andante – Presto – Allegro – Adagio – Menuet
I – Menuet II

This is an arrangement of a piece which has a basso continuo; the editor conjectures that BWV 1033 was an arrangement in turn of a piece for unaccompanied flute, as a justification for the present arrangement. It is not clear whether this piece is really by J. S. Bach. In my opinion, if it is by J. S. Bach, then he wrote it on an off-day.

- [49] [Johann Sebastian] Bach. Bach for Flute: Bach “That’s Easy”, [for modern Boehm flute, with guitar chord symbols], Wise Publications (AM91872), [Distributors] Music

Sales Ltd, 8/9 Frith Street, London, W1V 5TZ, England, 1994. ISBN 0-7119-3984-5.

Air (from Suite in F) – Air (from the Peasant Cantata) – Air in D Major (from Orchestral Suite in D [BWV 1068 or 1069?]) – Aria – Badinerie (from Orchestral Suite in B Minor [BWV 1067]) – Bourrée – Bourrée No. 1 (from French Overture [BWV 971]) – Bourrée No. 1 (from Orchestral Suite in C [BWV 1066]) – Come Sweetest Death, Come, Blessed Rest – In Tears of Grief (from St Matthew Passion [BWV 244]) – Jesu Joy of Man’s Desiring – Lie Still, O Sacred Limbs – March – Minuet (from Orchestral Suite in No. 2 in B Minor [BWV 1067]) – Minuet in C Minor – Minuet in D Minor – Minuet in G – Minuet in G Minor – Musette – Passepied No. 1 (from Orchestral Suite in C [BWV 1066]) – Prelude in E Minor (from Eight Short Preludes and Fugues for Organ) – Prepare Thyself, Zion (from Christmas Oratorio [BWV 248]) – Rinkart (from Kommt Seelen) – Sarabande (from Cello Suite in Eflat [BWV 1008 or 1011?]) – Sarabande (from Sonata Nach [sic] Reincken) – Sarabande (from Suite in Eflat) – Sheep May Safely Graze – Sleepers, Wake! A Voice Is Calling

Many of these pieces can also be played on the treble recorder without octaving. I have yet to identify each with its BWV-Nr.

Variations on old tunes, in a traditional manner; the number of variations is in brackets. Despite their being said to be for treble, four of the six pieces go below middle C; presumably they are to be played an octave higher.

The final piece is attributed to "J. S. Bach (?)" (the question mark is not mine, but Giesbert's). I believe this is a mistake, and that it is really Jean Daniel Braun; I conjecture that the original work had "J. B.". Compare the sources quoted in Hans-Martin Linde's edition [101].

This includes all the tunes from all the editions: it is truly “complete”.

Many of these are within the compass of a treble recorder; almost all within the compass of a descant recorder. A few go below middle c. Because the editor records all variations from different editions of Playford, the variants can sometimes be distracting when playing.

Simple dances. The title is the title of the complete original publication; this volume presents just a small selection.

The quotation marks in the title are actually guillemets, but bib2html does not support these.

The titles are merely Fantasia I–XII

These are different from the other twelve fantasias by Telemann which are available in more than one edition, as for example Nitz's [123]. As far as I know this edition by Veilhan is the only one of these fantasias for recorder.

- [123] Georg Philipp Telemann. Zwölf Fantasien, [TWV 40:2–13], für Altblockflöte solo, edited by Martin Nitz. Amadeus Verlag (Berhard Päuler) (BP 425), Winterthur/Schweiz, 1984.

I believe the Schott edition of six Telemann fantasias is a subset of these twelve.
